

Santa Fe Vipassana Sangha

welcomes

Jason Siff

Teacher-in-Residence November 4 – December 16

Jason is an innovative dharma teacher and founder of the Skillful Meditation Project. His approach to awareness meditation is grounded in the teachings of early Buddhism and has been developed through extensive practice and inquiry, study of the original Pali suttas, and on-going in-depth work with students. He and his wife Jacquelin lived in Asia for several years and were ordained monastics during the late 80's. Jason has a background in counseling psychology as well as Buddhist psychology and philosophy.
